

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, 'Grieve not for me'
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs
The good I lived while I was strong
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all...how I was truly blessed
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.

Homily

General Intercessions:

Priest: God, the almighty Father, raised Christ his Son from the dead; with confidence we ask him to save all his people, living and dead:

Read by: Maree Worland and Karen Pearn

For Daphne who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that she now be admitted to the company of the saints.

Lord, hear us.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

For our sister who ate the body of Christ, the bread of life, that she may be raised up on the last day.

Lord, hear us.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the mourners, for the family and friends of our sister Daphne, that they may be consoled in their grief by the Lord who wept at the death of his friend Lazarus.

Lord, hear us.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have helped us and the caregivers of Injune Hospital who let Daphne into their hearts, may they receive gratitude always for the kindness they spread.

Lord, hear us.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

For Daphne's parents, sister, brothers, and son, who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face.

Lord, hear us.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people:

Hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters.

Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
